

Also,

Section 811, line 15, after the words "station-houses," insert the words, "and at his office, or in any other place, his services for criminal cases, and in all cases where a fine or penalty is imposed,"

Which were severally read and adopted.

Mr. McColgan submitted the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Amend by adding section 829: That any person or persons, who may be summoned before the Board of Police Commissioners to testify in reference to the conduct and discharge of their duties by officers appointed by said Board, and who may refuse to obey such summons, or obeying, may refuse to testify before said Board in reference to said Board, in reference to said matters, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars, in the discretion of the Criminal Court, and any person or persons so summoned and testifying, who may wilfully swear falsely, shall be guilty of perjury and punished accordingly.

Which was rejected.

The bill as amended was then read a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Brace (the rules being suspended) moved that the several Revenue Bills reported from the Committee on Ways and Means on yesterday, be made the order of the day for Friday, the 20th instant.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion, Mr. Brace demanded the yeas and nays.

Which was not sustained.

The motion was then non-concurred in.

Mr. Brace moved to make the said bills the order of the day for Monday, the 16th instant.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Brace demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called, and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
