So the motion prevailed, and the Sergeant-at-Arms proceeded to carry out the order.

After an absence of some time, the Sergeant-at-Arms returned, and reported that he had notified all the members in the city to give their attendance, and had brought them before bar of the House.

On motion of Mr. Cooper, all further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

Mr. Freaner moved that the bill be read a second time this day, under the provisions of the Constitution, Article 3, section 27.

The yeas and nays were called, and appeared as follows :
