

Constitution provides that in case the number of Senators be increased, the classification of additional Senators shall be made so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, an equal number in each class; and whereas, the class of Senators holding over at the last election, numbers thirteen, and the class of those elected at the same time, exclusive of Garrett county, numbers twelve; therefore for the purpose of equality between the classes—

It is ordered, that the Senator from Garrett county is entitled to be embraced in the class of Senators whose terms will expire at the expiration of four years from the last election.

Which was read and adopted.
