

Also,

The petition of Ephraim Brown and fifty other citizens of Harford county, for Local Option and Damage Laws.

Which were severally read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Also,

The petition of Joshua H. Scarff and seven other citizens of Harford county, against the appointment of a Bailiff for the Orphans' Court for said county.

Which was read and referred to the Harford delegation.

Also,

The petition of Hiram Ball, Frank Boorman, Joshua McComas and twenty-six other citizens of Harford county, for an Act to enable the Commissioners of Baltimore and Harford counties to build a bridge over the Little Gunpowder Falls, near Stritehoof's Mill.

Which was read and referred to the Harford and Baltimore county delegations.

Also,

The petition of Benjamin Pruitt, of Harford county, to be reinstated on the pension rolls.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Nicodemus presented the petition of E. W. Mobberly and forty other citizens of Frederick county, asking that the name of Charles Stevens, a soldier of the war of 1812, be placed on the pension rolls.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Latchford presented the petition of James W. Whitesides and eighty-two other citizens of Prince George's county, praying for a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Coulbourn presented the petition of forty-two male and female citizens of Somerset county, praying for Local Option.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on Temperance.

Mr. Miller presented the petition of Miss Mollie Culler and thirty-two other ladies of Jefferson District, Frederick county, in favor of Local Option.