

against the Local Option Bill, "so called," but in reality a Prohibitionary Bill.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Staylor presented the petition of John H. Uhler, R. Conoly and three hundred and sixty-seven other citizens, against a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Joyce presented the petition of Joseph H. Butler and four hundred and twelve other citizens, against a Local Option Law.

Also,

The petition of J. C. Liddy and six hundred and ten other citizens, against a Local Option Law.

Also,

The petition of Charles Parten and four hundred and fifty other citizens, against a Local Option Law.

Also,

The petition of James E. Wyble and five hundred and forty other citizens, against a Local Option Law.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Staylor presented the petition of Thomas Philbin and four hundred and forty others, against a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Cooper presented the petition of James Hayes and four hundred and eighty-four others, against a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Waters presented the petition of Olivia Hyde, Elizabeth Hale and twenty-nine other ladies of Carroll county, in favor of a Local Option and a more stringent License Law.

Also,

The petition of Mrs. Doctor C. Moorehead, Mrs. R. Miller, Mrs. Laura Forsyth and thirty-five other ladies of Howard county, in favor of a Local Option and a more stringent License Law.