

Which was read and referred to the Baltimore and Harford county delegations,

Mr. Greenfield presented the memorial of the officers of the Maryland College of Pharmacy for a change in law regulating the same.

Which was read and referred to the Select Committee on that subject.

Mr. Merritt presented the petition of C. H. Wickes, I. K. Aldridge and sixty-five other citizens of Kent county, praying the passage of a law against fish pounds in the waters of Kent county.

Which was read and referred to the Kent delegation and Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Fenton presented the petition of J. H. Gilmore, S. Uxter and five hundred and seventy-eight others, against a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. McColgan presented the petition of James Mills, Fredk. Knaiff and six hundred and ninety others, against a Local Option Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Freaner presented the petition of four hundred citizens of various districts in Washington county, praying for the passage of a bill submitting an amendment to the Constitution, restricting the right of removing criminal causes.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Hamilton presented the petition of John F. Preston, Thomas G. Deford, Jr. and others, praying the passage of a law ordering a new Registration of Voters in Baltimore City.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. Thompson presented the petition of Hon. R. B. Carmichael and twenty-six others, against exempting Queen Anne's county from the operations of the Dog Law.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Etchison presented the petition of Mary Higgins, to be placed on the pension list.