 Turner, of Cecil, Dawson,

So the motion prevailed, and

The Senate bill entitled an Act relating to Building Associations, Homestead Associations and Land Companies, in this State, was taken up for consideration.

Said bill being upon a third reading,

The question recurring upon the amendments submitted thereto by Mr. Henkle, on the 19th day of February,

Mr. Gill moved the previous question.

The question then being,

“Shall the main question be now put?”

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question then recurring upon the amendments submitted by Mr. Henkle, they were rejected.

Mr. Stewart, of Baltimore City, submitted the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Section 1, strike out all after the word “State,” in line 5, to the word “all,” in line 9, and insert the words, to come in after the word “State,” in line 5, “to issue to its borrowers promissory notes or any other evidence of indebtedness, but.”

Which was adopted.

Mr. Greenfield submitted the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Amend by adding a new section to come in after section 1, as follows:

SECTION 2. And be further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any such Building Association, Homestead Association, Land Company, or any similar Association in this State, to impose, charge or receive any fine for the non-payment of weekly dues or repayments exceeding ten per centum on the amount of such weekly dues or repayments, and under no circumstances shall such fine or fines be compounded; and any holder or holders of shares in any such Association or Company not paid up, and for which a certificate or certificates of stock shall not have been issued, shall have the right at any time to withdraw the full amount of his, her or their deposits paid in on account of said shares, by giving sixty days notice in writing to the Treasurer of such Association or Company, of his, her or their desire so to
