

Mr. Lamar submitted the following

JOINT RESOLUTION :

WHEREAS, On the motion made last evening to reconsider the vote by which the Oyster Bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and especially on the motion to amend section 28, of said bill, the issue was raised and decided that the gift of public patronage, when vested in the Judiciary, is calculated to affect the purity, integrity and independence of that system, and should not be so vested ; Therefore,

Resolved by the General of Maryland, That the appointment of School Commissioners by the Judiciary of this State is in like manner calculated to effect the purity, integrity and independence of that system, and should not be so vested.

Which was considered.

Mr. Frenner moved to lay said Resolution on the table.

The question recurring upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Lamar demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
