

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The House proceeded to the consideration of the unfinished business of the 10th instant,

Being,

The bill entitled an Act to suppress intemperance, and to permit the voters of the City of Baltimore, and of each county in the State of Maryland, to vote on the question of granting licenses to sell intoxicating liquors.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

Mr. Watkins moved that the further consideration thereof be postponed, and that the House proceed to the consideration of the Revenue Bill No. 28.

The question recurring upon the concurring in the motion,

Mr. Park demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:
