Etchison,

So the motion to postpone did not prevail.

Mr. McCosker (the rules being suspended) submitted the following order:

WHEREAS, It is asserted in one of the daily papers, that undue and corrupt means have been and are now being used to influence the votes of this Body upon the bill now pending, and known as the "Local Option Bill;"

And whereas, It is the duty of this Body to investigate these charges and vindicate itself from these aspersions; therefor,

Ordered, That the Committee on Temperance investigate these charges, and have power to send for persons and papers.

Which was read.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the order, Mr. Hamilton demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
