

“for carrying on in this State any kind of manufacturing, ship-building, mechanical, industrial or chemical business, and for the sale, transportation or other disposition of the products thereof.”

So it will be seen that the Act of 1868, chapter 471, provides by section 19, for the creation under its provisions of corporations, having in view the same objects and purposes, and of the same general character as the corporation which it is proposed to create by this bill, and therefore, I think that the creation of a corporation of the character proposed by special Act, is prohibited by section 48, of Article 3, of the Constitution, and accordingly return the bill to you with my objections.

JAMES BLACK GROOME.

The message was read.

The question then recurring (under the provisions of the Constitution, Article 2, section 17,) upon the reconsideration of the vote by which said bill had been passed.

The vote was then reconsidered.

The question then recurring upon the passage of the bill,

The question being,

“Shall this bill pass, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?”

The yeas and nays were called, (as required by Article 2, section 17, of the Constitution,) and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE—None.

NEGATIVE.
