Hon. Richard C. Hollyday, Secretary of State, delivered the following message:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, March 19th, 1874.

To the House of Delegates:

I herewith respectfully return, without my approval, House Bill No. 86, entitled "An Act to repeal an Act entitled an Act to incorporate the First Hagerstown Hose Company, passed December session, 1822, chapter 42, and to amend and re-enact the same as follows."

This bill, although nominally to amend an old Act of incorporation, in effect proposes to create a corporation "capable in law to have, purchase, receive, possess, enjoy and retain to them and their successors lands, tenements, rents, annuities or other hereditaments," and "to grant, demise, alien and dispose of" the same as it "may judge most conducive to the interest of the Company."

It will be noticed that under the provisions of the proposed charter, the amount of real estate, and other like property, which this corporation might purchase and retain, is only
