

Frederick, and report to him their number and condition, and all information in relation thereto, but not to incur any expense without the authority of the Governor.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Turner, of Baltimore county, submitted the following order:

WHEREAS, The 27th section of the 3rd Article of the Constitution provides, that no bill shall originate in either House during the last ten days of the session, unless two-thirds of the members elected thereto shall so determine by yeas and nays; and

Whereas, Monday, the 6th of April next, is the last day of this session of the General Assembly of Maryland; therefore,

Be it ordered, That the House of Delegates will, at this session of the General Assembly, consider no bill which may originate in the House of Delegates, unless the bill itself (and not the leave only,) shall have been introduced and filed at the desk of the Clerk of this House, on or before the 27th of March instant, unless two-thirds of the members elected to this House shall so determine by yeas and nays.

Which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Gill,

Leave was granted to the Committee on Claims to introduce a bill entitled an Act to pay Isaac D. Jones, Levin L. Watters and William G. Iglehart, for services rendered as Commissioners to adjust the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia.

On motion of Mr. Seth,

Leave was granted to the Select Committee on Temperance to introduce a bill to regulate the issuing of licenses for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors in this State.

On motion of Mr. Glatfelty,

Leave was granted to the Garrett delegation and Mr. Colton, to introduce a bill for the better protection of birds in Garrett county.

On motion of Mr. Hodson,

Leave was granted to the Dorchester delegation to introduce a bill to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Dorchester county to aid in the construction and completion of the Vienna Railroad.