NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The hour of 11 A. M. having arrived,

The House proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day,

Being,

The bill entitled an Act to provide for the general valuation and assessment of property in this State.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

Mr. Seth submitted the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Section 1, line 3, strike out all after the word "except," and insert the following: "Property belonging to the United States, to this State, or to any county or incorporated city or town of this State, to houses for public worship, including parsonages, with the ground appurtenant thereto and necessary for the use thereof; all grave yards, cemeteries and burying grounds; the crops and produce of lands in the hands of the producer or his agent, mortgages on real estate, provisions for the use and consumption of the person to whom the same shall belong and his family, plantation utensils, the working tools of mechanics and manufacturers moved or worked by hand, and the article manufactured by them whilst in their possession, or that of their agents, unsold, wearing apparel of every description, libraries for private use
