

Mr. Greenfield submitted the following message to the Senate:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
March 31st, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received your message asking a Committee of Conference of two on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, on the bill relating to Building Societies and Land Companies, and respectfully concur therein; and name on the part of the House, Messrs. Greenfield, Henkle and Stewart.

By order,
M. Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

The message was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Nutwell, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably,

Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal Article 21, of section 7, of an Act entitled an Act to create State Banking Institutions, and to enable the several banks of this State, (State and National,) to avail of the provisions thereof, passed at January session, 1870, chapter 206, and to impose a tax on the issue of notes put in circulation by State Banks and Banking Institutions.

Said bill was read a second time.

A bill entitled an Act to provide for the inspection of spirituous, malt and fermented liquors,

Being on its second reading,

Mr. Lancaster moved to strike out the enacting clause.

The question being on sustaining the motion,

Mr. Loane demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
