

So the motion prevailed, and the bill was substituted for the unfavorable report.

Mr. Wier, Chairman of a Select Committee, reported unfavorably,

The bill entitled an Act to suppress intemperance and to permit the voters of Allegany county, in the State of Maryland, to vote on the question of granting licenses to sell intoxicating liquors.

Mr. Park moved to substitute the bill for the unfavorable report.

The motion was rejected, and the unfavorable report adopted.

Mr. Koons submitted Joint Resolutions in relation to the word "white," as it exists in the Constitution of this State.

Mr. Gill moved that the Resolutions be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. McWilliams moved, as a substitute, that the Resolutions be referred to the Committee on Colored Population.

The question being upon the substitute,

Mr. Koons demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
