So the motion to postpone informally the further consideration of the bill, did not prevail.

The question then recurring upon the passage of the bill,

Mr. Joyce moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole.

Which was decided in the affirmative,

And the House resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole.

After some time passed in Committee of the Whole House,

Mr. Keech, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House, reported that the Committee had had under consideration the Senate Printed Bill No. 175, together with the amendments, as proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means, had made some progress therein, and asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the same.

Mr. Buchanan moved that the report of the Committee be adopted.

Mr. Watkins demanded the previous question.

The question then being,

“Shall the main question be now put?”

Mr. Brace demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
