Johnson,

The Senate bill entitled an Act supplementary to an Act passed March 2d, 1874, entitled an Act to provide for the defence of Officers of Registration and Judges of Election who are or may be indicted in the United States Court for Acts done in performance of duties imposed by the Constitution and Laws of this State, which are alleged to be in violation of the Act of Congress, approved May 31st, 1870, entitled "An Act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes."

Said bill being upon a third reading,

On motion of Mr. McColgan,

The amendments reported from the Committee on the Judiciary and adopted on the 24th of March, were stricken out.

Said bill was then read a third time and passed by yeas and nays, as follows:
