Said bill was then returned to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

April 6th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

The Senate having declined to concur in the amendment of your Honorable Body to Senate Bill No. 224, entitled an Act to provide for the taxation of the property of Railroad Companies in this State for county and municipal purposes, would respectfully ask the appointment of a Committee of Conference thereon.

We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Earle and Tuck.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,

Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Stewart, of Howard, submitted the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

April 6th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Senate :

We have received your message in regard to Senate Bill No. 224, entitled an Act to provide for the taxation of the property of Railroad Companies in this State for county and municipal purposes, and concur in the appointment of a Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses.

We name on the part of the House, Messrs. Stewart, of Howard, Stake and Greenfield.

By order,

M. Y. KIDD,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.
