

Endorsed, "Rejected for want of a constitutional majority."

Mr. McColgan, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported unfavorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal section 82, of Article 29, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Courts," providing for rendering judgments for the damages awarded by the jury, upon the ratification of inquisitions for condemning lands, and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to add additional sections to the said Article of the Code.

The unfavorable report was adopted.

Mr. Freamer, Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, reported without amendments,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to enable the Court of Appeals to rehear the case of Samuel Barth vs. Simon Rosenfield & Co., if in the judgment and opinion of the Court of Appeals it would tend to do justice between the parties.

Which was considered.

Mr. Merryman, Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture, reported without amendment,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to promote the efficiency of the Maryland Agricultural College.

Which was considered and laid on the table.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

April 6th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We respectfully request the return to this Body of the bill entitled "An Act to authorize the County Commissioners of Prince George's county to subscribe to the capital stock of the Washington City and Point Lookout Rail Road Company, and of the Southern Maryland Rail Road Company," which was lost for want of a constitutional majority.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.
