

CHAPTER 13.

AN ACT to vest certain property therein mentioned in the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Kent county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, that a Presbyterian Church has lately been organized in the village of Georgetown in Kent county, and incorporated under the General Laws of this State, under the corporate name of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Kent county, and whereas, a new church building has been erected by said church on a lot of ground in said village, whereon anciently a Presbyterian Church stood, the said lot being bounded on the East by King Street in said village, on the North and West by the lands of John Jervis and on the South by another street, the said lot having been used as a burial ground for a time beyond the memory of man, and whereas, it is desirable that the said Church property should be vested in the said corporation.

Title confirmed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the title of the above mentioned and described lot, with the church edifice thereon erected shall be, and the same is hereby vested in and confirmed to the said Westminster Presbyterian Church of Kent county, and to their successors forever, for the uses, purposes and trusts set forth in said act of incorporation.

Approved, 13th February, 1874.
