

CHAPTER 60.

AN ACT to alter and amend the charter of the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, incorporated by an act entitled, "an act to recognize the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, a corporation created by and existing under the laws of the State of West Virginia, as a corporation in the State of Maryland, and to authorize it to exercise the powers and privileges of a corporation within the State of Maryland, for "Mining and other purposes," passed at January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter two hundred and ninety-five, by repealing the second section thereof, and amending the same, and re-enacting it as amended.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the said Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, owns certain tracts of coal land in Allegany county, the situation of which is inaccessible by ordinary rail roads, for the transportation of coal from its mines, and its delivery on the line of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad or Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and necessitates the construction of works and the improvements in the form of rail-roads, bridges, incline plains and machinery, the cost of which, and also the expense of maintaining and operating the same, will be unusually great, and the alterations of its charter hereby made, are necessary to enable said corporation to develop its property and accomplish the ends and purposes of its incorporation, and the public interest and works of internal improvement of the State, will be promoted by the successful prosecution of its business, therefore—

Repealed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter two hundred and ninety-five, entitled "an act to recognize the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, a corporation created by and existing under the laws of the State of West Virginia, as a corporation in the State of
