

and protect destitute and homeless boys, to furnish them with food, raiment and lodging, to stimulate them to honest efforts to earn a livelihood, to instruct them after working hours in moral and religious truths, and in the rudiments of education, to aid and encourage them out of vagrancy and ignorance, to rise up into a better life of virtue, industry and usefulness and generally to stand in the relation of parent to such homeless boys.

Life member SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every person who has paid or shall hereafter pay the sum of ($50.00) fifty dollars at one time, shall be a member of said society for life; and every person who shall have paid, or who shall hereafter pay the sum of ($100 00) one hundred dollars or more at one time shall be a life director thereof; and every person paying the sum of ($5.00) five dollars annually, shall be a member while he continues to contribute said sum, and be entitled to vote at the annual election.

Life director

Member

Management SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the property and concerns of said corporation shall be managed by twenty-one directors, who shall be elected annually, by the members of said society, at such time and place, and in such manner as the articles and by-laws of said society may appoint; five of said directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Vacancies SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That whenever any vacancy in said board of directors shall occur by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the same shall be filled for the remainder of the year by such person as the board of directors for the time being, or a majority of them, shall appoint.

Power SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That said corporation may from time to time, make such by-laws, ordinances and regulations, relative to receiving inmates into the home, their management, government, instruction discipline, employment and disposition, not contrary to law, as they may deem proper, and may appoint such officers, agents and servants as they may deem necessary to transact the business of said corporation, and may designate their duties.