

banks, of the moneys deposited therein, of the notes in circulation, of the cash on hand, amount of coin and of notes of other banks, of the value of the real estate held by the corporation, and of the amount and value of public and other stocks owned by the corporation; said statements to be furnished once in each year and to show the condition of the corporation in the said particulars as they may appear at the close of the business transactions of the day in settlement thereof, on the first Monday of January; and the said corporation shall publish said statement, so made to the Treasurer, in at least one of the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, such statement in all cases to be verified by the oath or affirmation of the President or Cashier of the corporation.

D. The issues or notes, usually denominated bank notes, which it shall be lawful for this corporation to issue, shall not at any time exceed the amount of its capital stock actually paid in, and no notes shall be issued of a less amount or denomination than five dollars, nor of any amount intermediate between five and ten dollars; and the General Assembly may at any time restrict the issue of such notes both in the amount which may be issued and in the denomination of notes, but this section shall not be construed as compulsory on the corporation to issue such bank notes if the directory should at any time deem it advisable. Issue notes.

E. The President, each Director, and Cashier, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take the following oath or affirmation, as the case may be: "I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully, impartially, diligently and honestly, execute the duties of ——— agreeably to the provisions of the law and the trust reposed in me, to the best of my skill and judgment;" said oath or affirmation to be taken before any magistrate, or any person having authority, under the laws of the State, to administer oaths, and to be made in writing, signed by the affiant and filed among the archives of the banking company. Take oath.

F. The total amount of the debts which the said corporation shall at any time owe, exclusive of its Debts limited.