

CHAPTER 122.

AN ACT for the relief of the Central Presbyterian Church of the City of Baltimore, to authorize the recording of certain amendments to the original plan, agreement and regulation for the incorporation of said church, adopted by the congregation thereof, on the fifth day of May, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and fifty-six, and on the thirtieth day of March, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and giving said amendments and all acts done in pursuance thereof, the same force and validity as if the said amendments had been duly recorded, within six months after the adoption of the same.

Preamble

WHEREAS, on the twelfth day of April, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and fifty-three, the male members of the Central Presbyterian Church of the City of Baltimore, having assembled in pursuance of due notice, for the purpose of procuring an act of incorporation under the laws of the State of Maryland, did determine and fix upon a certain plan, agreement or regulation for the incorporation of said church, and did elect George M. Gill, Joshua Hartshorn, William Miller, Andrew Armstrong, Robert H. Lowry, Benjamin Deford and William Reynolds, trustees of said church, and did authorize and empower them to acknowledge and record the said plan, agreement or regulation in the mode directed by the laws of this State, and to take all steps necessary and proper to obtain an act of incorporation, and to accomplish the object of said meeting; and whereas, the said corporators, above named did on the following day, in pursuance of said authority, duly acknowledge the said plan, agreement or regulation, and caused the same to be recorded among the Charter Records of the City of Baltimore, in Liber E. D., number one, folios two hundred and thirty-seven and two hundred and thirty-eight; and whereas on the fifth day of May, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and fifty-six, the male members and pew-holders of said church, at
