

such persons in his road district, or such number of them as he may deem necessary to make such repairs, giving at least two days notice of the time and place of meeting, and what tools they must furnish; provided, however, that no non-taxpayer shall be compelled to work more than two days in one year, and that no person shall be compelled to work more than four miles from his place of residence. Proviso.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person from whom such labor on the roads may be required under the provisions of the preceding section, shall make it satisfactorily appear to the County Commissioners of the said county, that he is physically unable to perform such labor, and if the party is a non-taxpayer, it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners to exempt such person from the performance of the said labor. Exempt from labor

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the road supervisor may make such commutation of labor for teams, and carts, and wagons as they may deem proper. Commutation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That every person liable as aforesaid, to labor on said roads, who shall fail to obey the summons of the road supervisors or to furnish a substitute, shall, upon demand made by the said supervisor, pay to the said supervisor the sum of one dollar for each and every day he shall fail to perform the said labor; and the said supervisor shall collect and account under oath, at least once a year, and as often as may be required to the said County Commissioners, for all sums of money so collected, and shall apply the same or pay it over to the said Commissioners, as the said Commissioners may direct. Failure to obey summons.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That any person failing to obey such summons, made as aforesaid, and refusing upon demand made as aforesaid, to pay to the said supervisor the sum of one dollar, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon complaint made by such supervisor, be arrested and brought before some justice of the peace of the said county, upon a warrant to be issued by said justice, in the name of the State of Maryland therefor, and shall upon Failure to pay