

Jury of the county for malseasance in office, and shall upon conviction thereof, before the Circuit Court of the county, be fined in each case not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, in the discretion of the court, and the bond of the said supervisor shall be liable for said fine.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners aforesaid, shall have power at any time to remove from office, any road supervisor for what the said Commissioners may deem a neglect of duty or malseasance in office, and to re-appoint another road supervisor to fill the vancancy for the residue of the term; and the term of office of each supervisor shall end with the qualification and induction in office, of every new Board of County Commissioners.

Remove from office.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That all new public roads, hereafter opened in Wicomico county, shall be made thirty feet wide, well drained and graded; and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of the said county to reject all such roads if not put in the most complete order; and the County Commissioners as aforesaid, may make at any time such further rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the better keeping of public roads in said county, not inconsistent with this act.

New roads.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners may cause to be placed at such of the forks of the public roads as they may think need the same, finger-boards or signs, showing the prominent places to which said roads lead, and the distance to such places; and any person tearing down or defacing such finger-boards or signs, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars, and shall stand committed to the jail until such fine and costs are paid.

Finger-boards.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, relating to public roads in Wicomico county, inconsistent with this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

In force.

Approved, this 27th day of March, 1874.