

for excursions from churches, sunday schools and other moral and benevolent associations, and to hold camp-meetings or other religious meetings in accordance with the usages of the M. E. Church, to ornament, embellish, grade and supply the said grounds with all necessary roads, and when necessary to alter and change the locations of roads, and to erect on same such tenements and houses, and to make such provisions for supplying water and light as may be needed in carrying out the design and purpose of the association, and generally to manage, improve, lease or dispose of said land, and to do any manner of thing that said association may deem necessary or proper, and not inconsistent with the laws of this State.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That Floderada Howard, William R. Woodward, John T. Mitchell, Benjamin H. Stinemetz, Matthew G. Emory, John W. Wade, Thomas Sommerville, Alexander Ashley, Richard H. Willett, Walter M. Talbot and Israel G. Warfield are the trustees of said corporation, and will hold their office until the second Monday in May, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and until their successors shall have been duly elected; that the said eleven trustees and their successors shall manage the affairs of the said corporation. Trustees

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the said incorporation is hereby fixed at twenty thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of twenty dollars each; that any portion of surplus funds remaining to the association after defraying all necessary expenses thereof, for purchase of lands, cost of all improvements, and care of the property, and after the stockholders shall have received dividends not exceeding six per centum per annum, on the amount actually paid in on their stock, shall be securely invested by the trustees for the subsequent care and improvement of the premises, and to defray as far as possible, the expenses of the annual camp meeting, of the association, and for no other purpose whatever. Capital stock

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the stockholders of said corporation, at their annual meeting which shall be held on the second Monday of May of each year, or at such other time as may be fixed by the associ- Stockholders