

employees under him, shall sell directly or indirectly or give away at any time or in any way or manner, at the place of business of said druggist, any spirituous or fermented liquors to a minor, insane person, or to any person at the time intoxicated, the said licensed druggist, clerk, servant or employee so doing shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for every such offence, in the discretion of the court; and in case a licensed druggist shall be convicted a second time for a violation of the provisions of this act, he shall, in addition to the payment of the fine above prescribed, forfeit his license and be forever after incapable of obtaining a license under this act; and no person or persons, firm or company so licensed shall sell directly or indirectly, or give away at his, her or their place of business, any spirituous or fermented liquors for any purpose on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, except in cases of immediate danger to the life of any sick invalid or wounded person, upon the written recommendation of the physician in actual attendance upon such person, which said written recommendation shall specify the person for whose use it is required, and shall be preserved and kept on file by said druggist, who may be required on any legal examination under the provisions of this law, upon two days notice to produce the same, and a failure so to do shall be presumptive evidence that he has no such written recommendation, and upon conviction thereof he, she or they shall be subject to a fine as above imposed in this section.

License fee. SEC. 172. And be it enacted, That every druggist so licensed, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county, the sum of twenty-five dollars for every license issued under this act, and the moneys received for the same shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the State.

To specify distinctly SEC. 173. And be it enacted, That all licences issued under this act, shall specify distinctly on their face the town, village, election district as well as the particular building and its locality within said town, village or election district where such liquors for