

medicinal or sacramental purposes are licensed to be sold, and the name or names in full of the person or persons, firm or company obtaining the same, together with the names of the parties recommending the issuing of said license; and every person or persons, firm or company so licensed, who shall sell directly or indirectly, or give away such liquors in any other place, town, village or election district, or in any other building or locality other than the one named and described in said license, without an application to the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and on endorsement and entry by him on said license, describing the particular building and locality, village, town and election district to which the removal is desired to be made, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be subject to a fine for each and every offence of not more than two hundred dollars, nor less than one hundred dollars in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 174. And be it enacted, That no patent medicines, bitters, schnapps or other preparations, chemical or medicinal, containing spirituous or fermented liquors as an ingredient, shall be sold within the limits of this county by any one except a licensed druggist, and any other person or persons, firm or company selling any of said preparations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be liable for each and every offence to the same fine as is imposed in the fourth section of this act upon persons selling without license. Not to sell.

SEC. 175. That all licensed druggists shall, at the time of obtaining their license, be furnished by the Clerk of the Circuit Court, with a copy of this law, which they shall keep, together with their license containing the name of the persons recommending the granting of the same, suitably framed and hung up in some conspicuous part of their place of business, where the said liquors for medicinal or sacramental purposes are sold, where the same may be plainly seen and read. To be furnished copy of law.

SEC. 176. And be it enacted, That upon the approval of this act by a majority of the qualified and registered voters of Worcester county, at said special elections, that then a new article shall be added to New article