

Violate the ordinances

SEC. 81. Be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall violate any of the ordinances of the town of Easton, under the charter of the said town, by loud or boisterous talking, cursing, swearing or using profane or vulgar language or otherwise, in any manner whatever, disturb the peace and good order of the said town of Easton, or shall obstruct the streets or side-walks in any manner whatever, or violate any ordinance relating to the market of the town of Easton aforesaid, it shall be lawful and is hereby made the duty of the Bailiff of said town, or the Sheriff or Constable, or other municipal officers of Talbot county, to arrest the person or persons so offending or violating the ordinances as aforesaid, and take them before some justice of the peace of said county; and upon conviction of said offence or offences, the said offender or offenders shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, with costs; the fine to go to the use of said town, and in default of payment of the fine and costs aforesaid, the party or parties shall be committed to the county jail until the fine is paid.

Arre-t

Fine

Approved, April 1st, 1874.

CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, chapter one hundred and eighty-two, of the acts of eighteen hundred and fifty-three, entitled an act to incorporate the Trustees of the Masonic Hall and Church in Bel Air.

Repealed and re-enacted

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That chapter one hundred and eighty-two, of the acts of eighteen hundred and fifty-three, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

Incorporated

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That A. Lingan Jarrett, William H. Dal-