

election, they shall choose from their own body a President, who shall preside at all meetings of the Commissioners, and vote on all questions before them.

Election-

SEC. 143. All such elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

Refuse to qualify

SEC. 144. If any of said Commissioners, after they are elected, shall refuse to qualify or shall after they have qualified, die, resign, remove from said town or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill said vacancy shall be held after two weeks previous public notice, to be put up as aforesaid by said President and Commissioners, by hand bill written or printed, and posted at the post office and at three other public places in said town; provided, that no election to fill vacancies shall be held so long as five of the Commissioners shall remain, who have been duly elected and qualified; and the said remaining Commissioners not less than five, shall have all the powers conferred upon said President and Commissioners, as fully to all intents and purposes as if the whole seven were in office, duly qualified.

Proviso

Neglect to hold election.

SEC. 145. If the inhabitants of said town shall at any time neglect to make an election at the time herein mentioned, the power of electing Commissioners shall not cease, but the right and power of said inhabitants in that respect shall continue, and the President and Commissioners for the time being shall continue in office until such election shall be held.

Limits

SEC. 146. The limits of said town shall commence on the Susquehanna River, at the eastern terminus of the old Port Deposit bridge, and run thence north forty-five degrees, east one quarter of a mile; thence in a southeasterly direction in a straight line to a point one-fourth of a mile from the centre of the main street of said town on the road leading from Port Deposit to Battle Swamp, known as the Bell's Ferry road; thence in a straight line to a point on Herring Run, one fourth of a mile from the Susquehanna River; thence down the said run to the Susquehanna River, and then by and with the said river to the place of beginning.
