

parading and indecent exhibition of any stud horse, through the streets; to prevent the passage through any part of said town, of any locomotive at a greater rate of speed than six miles per hour; and to pass all other ordinances and by-laws necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in said corporation; and to preserve order and secure property and persons from violence, danger or destruction, and may impose fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach thereof; but no ordinance of said corporation shall impose a fine, penalty or forfeiture for any offence of more than ten dollars; and they may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest without warrant of any person violating any town ordinance, by riotous and disorderly conduct, or driving or riding through the streets when, in the judgment of the President, or any two of said Commissioners, the delay necessary to the issuing of a warrant would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives, limbs and property of the citizens; and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, so as to render it unsafe to permit him to drive through the streets, shall provide for the removal of the horse and vehicle without the limits of the town, or for the deposit thereof in some place of safety until the offender shall be sober; provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the passage of any by-law or ordinance in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this State.

Preserve order

Arrest without warrant

Levy and collect taxes

SEC. 152. They shall have power to levy and collect taxes in said town, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the one hundred dollars, on the assessable property of said town; and shall also, for the purpose of grading and paving the streets of said town, have power to levy such other taxes upon the property fronting on the street, or portion thereof to be paved, as will pay the cost of grading and paving the same.

Appoint an assessor

SEC. 153. They shall once in every three years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value and assess the property in said town, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors, proceed to assess in the county; but in assessing any of the land within the