

Exempt from taxation

able at any period longer than twenty years from the date of issue; said bonds to be exempt from taxation for county and municipal purposes, and the said President and Commissioners shall have power to subscribe, out of the money arising from the sale of said bonds, such sum or sums as they may deem proper for the capital stock of any corporation or corporations hereafter formed for the purpose of supplying said town with pure water and gas, or to loan to such corporation or corporations out of said moneys, such sum or sums as they may deem proper, the said corporation or corporations securing the same in such manner as to said President and Commissioners may seem safe and proper.

Establish
limits

Proviso

SEC. 162. The said President and Commissioners may, on application of any person holding a lot or lots in said town, have the same surveyed and the limits thereof established by a committee of three of their own body, who, or any two of them, may employ a surveyor for the purpose, and expenses, thereof shall be charged in fair proportion upon the holders of lots surveyed, and may be collected as other small debts; provided, that upon application for survey, the owners of adjoining lots or their agents shall be notified, if residing in said town, and if neither the owner of said lots, nor their agents shall reside in said town, the notice of the time and place of making said survey shall be posted at the post-office in said town at least twenty days before said survey.

Establish permanent boundaries.

SEC. 163. The person making such survey shall establish permanent boundaries of the lots surveyed, and a certificate of the survey and bounds thereof, shall be returned by the surveyor, attested by two or more commissioners, and recorded among the office papers of the said President and Commissioners, and a certified copy thereof shall be evidence of the lines of said lots.

Application of fines, &c.

SEC. 164. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by the said President and Commissioners, by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied for the use of said town, as may from time to time be directed by said President and Commissioners: and all such fines, penalties and forfeitures may be