

known as "Uplands," in said county, for the sum of forty-six thousand five hundred dollars, and have also furnished materials and done extra work from time to time as was deemed advisable and necessary by the said County Commissioners, which amounted to the sum of ten thousand three hundred and eighty-five dollars, making a total of fifty-six thousand eight hundred and eighty-five dollars, for completing said Alms-house, and whereas the said Codling and Lishear, have faithfully and honestly performed their contract in every particular, and after a careful examination it appears that owing to a general increase in prices of materials, and to other unforeseen causes incidental to the construction of large public buildings, that the said Codling and Lishear have not been adequately or properly compensated for material furnished and labor performed in constructing said Alms-house, therefore—

Authorized to pay Codling and Lishear

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorized and requested to pay to Codling and Lishear, contractors for building the "new Alms-house" in said county, the sum of two thousand dollars, out of any moneys now in hand, or that may hereafter come into their hands, or to be levied for at the next annual county levy, as an additional and extra amount for the building and completion of said Alms-house, over and above the amount contracted for and heretofore paid to the said Codling and Lishear, by the said County Commissioners.

Repealed

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the act passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter three hundred and sixty-eight, of the General Assembly of Maryland as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and all other acts or parts of acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

In force

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved, this 4th of April, 1874.