

CHAPTER 224.

AN ACT to extend the limits of Baltimore city by including and annexing a part or portion of Baltimore county in and to the said city, and to provide for taking a vote of the people residing in said part or portion to be so annexed, for or against such annexation.

Extend the city limits.

Metes and bounds.

PROVISO

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part or portion of Baltimore county which is included within the following metes and bounds, that is to say: bounded on the east by a line parallel to and distant easterly one mile from the east side of East Avenue, as laid out on the Canton Company's grounds, and extending and running from a point where it intersects the north or secondly herein described lines, southerly to the channel of the Patapsco River or the boundary between Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties; and bounded on the north by a line distant northerly two miles from the north side of Boundary or North Avenue at North street, and to run parallel with and to Townsend street, as laid down on Poppleton's map of Baltimore, to the eastward of Cathedral street, said line extending from a point where it intersects the line first herein described to a point where it intersects a line thirdly herein described, and bounded on the west by a line run parallel to and distant westerly one mile from the west side of Payson street, as laid down on Poppleton's map of Baltimore city; and extending from the north or secondly herein described line to a point where it intersects the southern or fourthly herein described line at low water mark on the south shore of the Patapsco, and running thence for the southern boundary with the south shore of the said river at low water mark to the eastern boundary of the Marine Hospital property, and thence by a straight line to the south terminus of the first herein described line in the channel of the Patapsco, from the eastern to the western boundary lines as herein described, be and the same is hereby annexed, and made a part of the City of Baltimore; provided the provisions of this act, for taking in the sense of the people by ballot, shall be complied with.