

Failure or neglect

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any supervisor who shall fail or neglect to perform his duties under the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to presentment and indictment by the Grand Jury, and on conviction in a court of law, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred, in the discretion of the court; said fine to be applied to the said road fund.

Approved, April 11th, 1874.

---

CHAPTER 266.

AN ACT appropriating a sum of money to pay for certain buildings erected in connection with the Washington University, in the City of Baltimore, to make further improvements thereon, and to provide for the free education in said University of Students, from the several legislative districts in the State.

Preamble

WHEREAS, By the act of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter one hundred and twenty-six, the Board of Visitors and Faculty of Washington University were authorized to use the property of the said university, as a basis of credit for obtaining a loan of the sum of ten thousand dollars, either by creating a ground rent or by mortgaging the same, the said sum to be used for erecting an additional building or buildings for university and hospital purposes.

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS, The contracts were made and buildings to the extent of twelve thousand five hundred dollars in cost were erected, when it was discovered that by a misnomer of the corporate title of the Board of Visitors of the said university, the purposes of the said act failed to be accomplished, and the faculty of the said university assumed the responsibility for the cost of said buildings, paying a part thereof in cash for which a lien upon the said