

faculty, setting forth that they will receive and educate annually without charge, save for matriculation and dissection fees, one student from each legislative district of this State, to be recommended by the Senator or Delegates from said district, so long as the property is used for college purposes.

In force.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved, April 11th, 1874.

---

CHAPTER 267.

AN ACT to prohibit trespassing with gun or dog upon private land in Dorchester county, and prescribing penalties therefor—

Misdemeanor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every person who shall within the limits of Dorchester county, enter upon the lands of another with gun or dog, and shoot or kill any partridge, lark, dove, or robin, or any insectivorous bird of any kind whatsoever, or any rabbit or squirrel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to presentment and indictment therefor by the grand jury of said county, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five dollars, or more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of said county, not less than one month or more than three months, or be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, in the discretion of the court before which said presentment or indictment shall be tried; provided that the owner or possessor of the land trespassed upon has by notice through some newspaper published in Dorchester county, or by posters placed in at least five of the most conspicuous places upon said land forwarned all persons from hunting with dog or gun thereupon, and that the person presented or indicted, has not afterwards obtained the permission of said owner or possessor so to hunt or gun.

Penalty

Approved, April 11th, 1874.