

sand dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars, in the discretion of the County Commissioners, and proportioned to the amount of money to be expended in roads and bridges in his election district.

Keep record

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That said Chairman of the Board of Road Supervisors in each election district of said county, shall keep a record of all work and other transactions relating to roads in his district; and shall furnish to the said County Commissioners on each and every occasion, when he shall ask said Board of County Commissioners, or present a bill to them for payment of money expended in his district, a statement showing plainly and fully the items of the amount of labor performed, or materials furnished, the costs of the same, and to whom due; and said statement shall contain and embrace, as nearly as possible, the entire expenses of his district, for the period during which he claims pay or compensation, and shall contain a clear and detailed account, showing plainly and distinctly whether the amount charged for per diem of each supervisor in the election district including himself, is charged for services in superintending work on, or repair of roads, or in the necessary examination of roads in said district, which account the County Commissioners shall carefully examine, and they shall have power to reject all items, unless satisfied the same are correct.

Statement

Supervisory care.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the Chairman of the Board of Road Supervisors in each district, shall exercise a general supervisory care over all the county roads in his election district, and report the condition of the same to the County Commissioners from time to time as may be necessary, and whenever he may be required to do so by said County Commissioners; he shall make affidavit or affirmation as the case may be, to the justness and correctness of the account presented by himself, for work done under his immediate direction and control; before he presents the same to the County Commissioners for payment; he shall examine the accounts of the other two road supervisors in his election district, after an oath or affirmation as the case may be, has been made to each of them, before a justice of the peace of Baltimore county, by the supervisor presenting the same,

Examine accounts