

Aggrieved

feeling aggrieved at their action, shall have right of appeal as hereinbefore provided. When any new road is located, old road altered, or any road surveyed, said road shall be not less than thirty feet in width, and it shall be the duty of the supervisors to provide suitable bounding stones and have them securely planted at such points as they may deem necessary. The supervisors shall receive for their services two dollars and fifty cents for each day engaged in any of the duties of their office, which shall be paid out of the special road fund of their respective districts, and they are hereby authorized to incur any expense necessary for the proper work of the roads or the duties of their offices; provided, however, that no account shall be paid unless endorsed by the chairman and at least one of the other supervisors, and approved by the County Commissioners; and provided, further, that no supervisor shall receive any pay or per diem for his services in superintending the work of hands upon the roads of said county, unless he shall make affidavit that he had for every day so charged for his services as aforesaid at least six able-bodied hands, not under eighteen years of age, in his employment upon said roads, and at least one horse and cart; and shall also make

Provided
