

CHAPTER 282.

AN ACT for the relief of Washington College, and to appropriate money for the same, and provide for the education and board of one scholar from each county of the Eastern Shore.

WHEREAS, the Visitors and Governors of Washington College have gratuitously educated and boarded a large number of students from the different counties of the eastern shore of this State on account of the annuity granted to them by the acts of the General Assembly, which they intend to continue to do, and have also educated a large number of day scholars free of charge for tuition, and it is manifest that by some additional aid from the State the usefulness and prosperity of the College will be increased; therefore—

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer, on the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby authorized and directed, in addition to the sum now annually paid to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, to pay to the said Visitors and Governors the further sum of two thousand dollars annually on and after the first day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

Authorized to pay

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in consideration of the sum of two thousand dollars to be paid annually to the Visitors and Governors of Washington College, in addition to the sum now annually paid to them, the said Visitors and Governors shall educate free of charge for tuition, board, books and stationery, six additional students from the counties of the Eastern Shore.

Educate free of charge.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the students thus to be educated free of charge, as provided by the second section of this act, shall be selected and appointed in the same manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations and restrictions as are prescribed by the resolution thirty-four of the General Assembly in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, and the act of eighteen hundred and fifty-six, chapter two hundred and nineteen.
