

by him for said period, the number of licenses, male or female, received by him, when, and to whom by him issued, and the number still in his hands unissued.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That every such collector shall be entitled to ten per centum of the amount collected and accounted for by him; fifty cents for each and every dog killed by him, and to one-half the fines recovered, as hereinbefore provided, upon his information and evidence under the provisions of this act. Compensation

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That every such collector who shall neglect or refuse to discharge the duties imposed upon him by this act, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars and costs, for each and every case of failure or refusal to perform his said duties, to be recovered by an action before any justice of the peace for said county, whose duty it is hereby declared to be, to collect said fines, to pay over one-half thereof to the informer or informers, and the other half to the said County Commissioners of said county, who may allow such compensation for such duty as may be reasonable and just. Penalty.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall steal, entice or carry away any dog male or female, whose owners have complied with the provisions of this act, every such person or persons shall be guilty of larceny, and upon prosecution and conviction thereof by any tribunal now or hereafter to be authorized by law to try such offence, shall be fined a sum equal to the value of such dog or dogs, to the owner or owners of such dogs so stolen, enticed or carried away; and in addition thereto, shall suffer imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one nor more than six months, in the discretion of the court or the other tribunal trying such case. Penalty

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any dog shall be seen killing or worrying sheep, and upon information to the owner or keeper thereof by one or more persons, he, she or they shall refuse to kill said dog, it shall be the duty of the collector to kill the dog at the expense of the owner, for which he shall be en- Duty of collector