

CHAPTER 352.

AN ACT ceding to the United States of America the jurisdiction over the lands in Prince George's county, owned by the United States and constituting the site of Fort Washington, and also over the lands that may hereafter be conveyed to the United States adjoining thereto, for Military and Naval purposes, and which are herein described.

Jurisdiction
ceded

Beginning.

Courses and distance

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the jurisdiction and control over the residue of the lands owned by the United States, and constituting the site of Fort Washington, in the county of Prince George's, and the jurisdiction and control over the lands hereinafter described or any portion thereof, in said county, that may be hereafter conveyed by deed duly executed, acknowledged and recorded to the United States, and the water, water-rights and all other rights appertaining thereto, be and the same is hereby ceded and vested in the United States of America for Military and Naval purposes; the said cession, as to said land that may hereafter be conveyed, to take effect whenever the same shall be so conveyed; beginning for the said lands, to be hereafter conveyed, at a granite stone marked U. S. A., planted on the south side of the road leading from Fort Washington to Piscataway, and about nine perches from said road, and running thence north thirty-eight degrees four minutes, west fifty-four perches and fifty one-hundredths of a perch to a stone marked U. S.; thence north thirty-four degrees thirty minutes, east forty perches to a stake; thence north sixty-two degrees thirty minutes, east forty perches to a stake; thence north forty-eight degrees forty-five minutes, east twenty-eight perches to a stake; thence north fifty-nine degrees forty-five minutes, east twenty perches to a stake; thence north eighty-five degrees two minutes, east forty-seven perches and thirty-three one-hundredths of a perch to a stake; thence north fifty-six degrees forty-seven minutes, east six perches and eighty-eight one-hundredths of a perch to a stake and stone; thence south eighty-one degrees nine minutes, east eighty-two perches and eighty-two one-hundredths of a