

Redeemed.

SEC. 6. Be it enacted, When a bond shall be redeemed, its date, amount and the name of holder shall be entered on the minutes, and the date of payment with rate of discount; and the said bond shall be taken by the Commissioners or their clerk to the Clerk's office, and then be destroyed in the presence of the Clerk of the Circuit Court or his deputy; and the clerk shall note the date, amount, holder and day of destruction on the minutes of the court.

Advantageous.

SEC. 7. Be it enacted, If at any time proposals shall be so advantageous that the County Commissioners shall desire to accept more of the bonds than they have money to use, and they have outstanding investment which can be used, converted and used for that purpose, and the Commissioners shall think it judicious, they are empowered so to use said investments.

Partially paid.

SEC. 8. Be it enacted, If a bond be duly, partially paid, the date, amount and holder of the bond shall be entered on their minutes, with the amount and date of payment, and the partial payment shall be also entered on said bond, and attested by the Clerk of the Commissioners under the seal of the Commissioners, and in such case the coupons shall all be cut off and destroyed as cancelled bonds, and in the same presence; and the bond shall have interest on balance from the date of credit, endorsed as other bonds having no coupons attached, but said interest shall be payable semi-annually as before, at the office of the County Commissioners; but no holder of a bond shall be compelled to accept a partial payment at a rate of abatement proposed, unless he shall have so offered in his proposal.

Shall always exhibit

SEC. 9. Be it enacted, The County Commissioners, with their annual publication of county receipts and expenditures, shall always exhibit what has been done in pursuance of this act.

In force.

SEC. 10. Be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11th, 1874.
