

urer or financial officer, and counsellor and aldermen of the city, are hereby directed and required to retain free said sums in the treasury for the purposes aforesaid.

RECEIVABLE FOR CITY TAXES. SUB-SECTION D. Said orders of the President of the Board of Police Commissioners, for the payment of the police, shall be receivable in payment of all city taxes; and the collector of said city, or person authorized to receive and collect the taxes thereof, is authorized and required to receive the same as money, and shall be entitled to return the same as money, and shall be entitled to return the same to the mayor, counsellor and aldermen of said city, and receive credit therefore as money.

VESTED WITH SUB-SECTION E. The chief of police shall be vested with all the power and authority of a city constable, for maintaining and preserving the peace and good order of the city, and shall see to the observance of the laws of said city, and acts of Assembly relating to the same; and in addition to the powers already conferred upon him, he shall be required, as chief of police, to direct the duties of the city constable, to exercise a vigilant supervision over them, and to report to the Board of Police Commissioners any neglect of duty on their part which he may observe, or which may be reported to him; he shall be the head of the police, and have entire control of it, and of all persons at any time employed in it subject to the authority of the Board of Police Commissioners; and he may at any time, with the approval of the Board of Police Commissioners, make rules and regulations for the government of the police, not inconsistent with the provisions of this code; he shall also report in writing to each monthly meeting of the corporation, a statement of all violations of the city laws that occurred during the preceding month, the number and names of all parties arrested, and the offences for which they were arrested, as well as the number and names of parties tried, and the issue of said trials, the disposition made of all fines imposed, and such other facts as in the discharge of the duties of his office he may deem necessary, and calculated to effect the subject of this section.

MAKE RULES AND REGULATIONS