

SUB-SECTION F. The chief of police and the police officers shall do duty by day and by night, and shall have and exercise within the city and precincts, during their continuance in office, the same power and authority as county constables now have, and shall also enforce its ordinances and the various laws and acts of Assembly relating to said city; but they shall not serve any civil process, except in cases of penalty arising out of such ordinances, laws or acts.

Shall do duty.

SUB-SECTION G. It shall be the duty of the city police officers to collect the fines that may hereafter be imposed by the mayor, councillor or any one of the aldermen, or any justice of the peace, for violations of any of the laws of the said city; and they shall pay said fines into the hands of the city treasurer as soon as received, and take his receipt therefor, which they will deliver to the chief of police, to be preserved by him and returned to the board at each regular monthly meeting thereof.

To collect the fines.

SUB-SECTION H. The chief of police and each member of the police force shall provide himself with, and wear whenever on duty the following uniform, viz: a dark blue single-breasted frock-coat with policeman's buttons, with standing collar, with a badge, with suitable device on the outside of the left breast of the coat, in such manner and place as that it cannot be obscured by any portion of the raiment; and dark blue vest and pantaloon, straw hats in summer, and dark blue caps, with glazed covers in winter, and dark blue cloth overcoat with same buttons in winter.

Shall provide himself with

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
