

election laws of this State, so far as they are applicable thereto.

Sub-SECTION 3. If, at said election, as named in the preceding section, a majority of the votes in either of said election districts hereinbefore mentioned, shall be against license, then the provisions of this act shall continue in force in said districts, and no license shall be granted therein to sell or otherwise dispose of any vinous, malt, spirituous or intoxicating liquors, as provided against in the first subsection thereof; but if a majority of the voters of either of said districts shall be for license, then license may be granted to sell spirituous liquors in the same manner as now allowed by law; but the vote in either of said districts shall not control in any manner the provisions of this act in any other district herein mentioned, or in Somerset county, than that in which it is cast; but the said vote of either of said districts shall apply to and control only the district in which it is cast.

In force.

Not in force.

Sub-SEC. 4. The provisions of this act shall not be construed to apply to sales of liquors for strictly medical or mechanical purposes, cider, beer, or home made wines.

Construed.

Sub-SEC. 5. All licenses granted after the passage of this act, in either of said districts hereinbefore mentioned, which may declare and decide, by vote aforesaid, "against license," shall cease and become void after the first day of January eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and the Comptroller of the Treasury shall refund to the holder or holders of said license the proportionate of money for the residue of the year such license has to run, from the first day of January eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Shall cease and become void.

Approved April 11th, 1874.