

held with an intention to violate the provisions of this law; and shall also make oath as to the tonnage of such boat; and the master and crew of such boat shall each make oath before said clerk that he has been a resident of the said county for twelve months next preceding the time of taking such oath.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all owners and masters of boats licensed under this article, are hereby constituted officers of the county, and are hereby clothed with authority to arrest any and all violators of this article; and to take such violators before any judge or justice of the peace, to be dealt with as hereinafter provided; and for the purpose of making such arrests are hereby clothed with the power to summon the posse comitatus to their aid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That upon information, given upon oath, to any justice of the peace of said counties, of any violations of this act, the said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender or offenders, and the seizure of the boat and furniture on board, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or any officer created by this act, or to any officer of the State Fishery Force.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all money arising from fines and forfeitures imposed by this act, shall be paid to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and by him paid, one-half to the informer and person making the arrest, and the other half monthly to the county commissioners of the county; and the said county commissioners are hereby authorized to use such monev, together with the sums received for license under this act, which sums the clerk is hereby directed to pay over monthly to the said county commissioners, after deducting therefrom his usual fees for issuing license, in providing proper police officers for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this act; and in case of a surplus remaining over at the end of each fiscal year of the county, it shall be placed to the credit of the school fund of said county.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said county commissioners of each county shall, before the first day