

crime, a statement of the record proof thereof, and in what court said conviction was had, or other proof by which such disqualification was established.

Make two alphabetical
lists.

Residence of every voter

SEC. 9. Immediately after the expiration of the days in which said officers of registration sat, commencing on the first Monday in September, they shall proceed without delay to make, or cause to be made, two alphabetical lists, one of which lists shall comprise the names of those registered persons which said officers have stricken from the lists of qualified voters, and the books of registration delivered to said officers by said clerks of courts; and the other one of said lists shall comprise the names of the persons which said officers have registered at the registration just made, and also the names of those persons whom the judge of a court to which an appeal from the decision of said officers of registration has been taken, has decided to be entitled to be registered; and in the lists of Baltimore city the residence of every voter shall be affixed opposite to his name; and said officers of registration shall cause said lists to be once published in two newspapers in the City of Baltimore, and said newspapers shall be designated by the Mayor and Register of the City of Baltimore, and one newspaper in each county, and also by handbills posted in such public places as they may select in the several wards of Baltimore city; but the register shall not publish in any newspaper any list of registered voters, except the list of those transferred, dead, disqualified, removed, dropped from the list, and of those whose names appear for the first time on list of qualified voters, and the districts of the several counties; and one-third of the handbills so posted in Baltimore city shall be printed in the German language.

Correcting
said books.

SEC. 10. For the purpose of correcting said books of registration and said lists, as made and published by said officers of registration, they shall, for three successive days in the City of Baltimore, Baltimore county and Allegany county, and two successive days in the remaining counties of the State, commencing in the City of Baltimore on the first Monday in October, and in the several counties on the first Monday in October, and on the same days respectively in every year thereafter, at some place in their