

dollars; to George M. Upshur, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Keech and Yellott, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Baughman and Brothers, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Plummer and Usilton, two hundred and sixteen dollars and seventy-five cents; to John R. Brown, Jr., two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to J. Cloud Norris, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to A. S. Abell and Company, two hundred and ninety-seven dollars and sixty cents; to A. G. and M. W. Boyd, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Bell and Company, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to William B. Green, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to William Henry Legg, two hundred and seventeen dollars; to Joseph H. Johnson, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Charles Cole, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to A. J. Merrill, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to C. T. Abell and Company, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Lemuel Malone, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to Frederick Raine, three hundred and sixty dollars; to F. W. Baker, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to William T. Iglehart, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to R. C. Mackall and Company, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to P. H. Rutledge, two hundred and thirty-four dollars; to E. Wells, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to L. F. Colton and Company, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; to King and Downs, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars; and to Thomas J. Turner, two hundred and thirty-seven dollars, in full payment of their bills for publishing the list of defaulters in the various newspapers of the State of Maryland, as provided by section six, of article sixty-nine, of the Code of Public General Laws.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11th, 1874. ' .